

CLASS - 12th

SUBJECT - ENGLISH

PROSE + POETRY + STORY OF ENGLISH

CLASS 12TH BIHAR BOARD – ENGLISH (RAINBOW PART 2)

CHAPTER 11: A MARRIAGE PROPOSAL (BY ANTON CHEKHOV)

 CHAPTER SUMMARY (IN 50 WORDS)

"A Marriage Proposal" is a hilarious one-act comedy play by Anton Chekhov. It revolves around Lomov, a nervous man who visits his neighbor Chubukov to propose to his daughter, Natalya. However, the proposal is repeatedly delayed as they break into ridiculous arguments over property ownership and hunting dogs.

 15 IMPORTANT SHORT SUBJECTIVE QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q1. Who was Lomov and why did he visit Chubukov's house?

Ans: Lomov was a wealthy, nervous, and middle-aged landowner who visited his wealthy neighbor Chubukov to ask for his daughter Natalya's hand in marriage.

Q2. How did Chubukov react when Lomov initially asked for Natalya's hand?

Ans: Chubukov was extremely happy and excited. He embraced and kissed Lomov, stating that he had been hoping for this proposal for a very long time.

Q3. What kind of person was Natalya according to Lomov?

Ans: According to Lomov, Natalya was an excellent housekeeper, well-educated, and not bad-looking, which made her an ideal match for him.

Q4. What physical ailments did Lomov suffer from?

Ans: Lomov suffered from extreme palpitations, a nervous disposition, sleep disorders, and sudden numbness or twitching in his legs.

Q5. What was the first ridiculous argument between Lomov and Natalya about?

Ans: The first argument was about the ownership of a piece of land called "Oxen Meadows." Both claimed it belonged strictly to their respective families.

Q6. How did Natalya react when she discovered that Lomov had come to propose to her?

Ans: She became hysterical, regretted the fight, and desperately urged her father to bring Lomov back to the house immediately.

CLASS - 12th SUBJECT - ENGLISH PROSE + POETRY + STORY OF ENGLISH

Q7. What was the second major argument between Lomov and Natalya about?

Ans: The second argument started over their hunting dogs, "Guess" (Lomov's dog) and "Squeezer" (Natalya's dog), as they fought over which one was superior.

Q8. Why does Chubukov join the arguments instead of resolving them peacefully?

Ans: Chubukov joins the arguments because of his pride as a landlord. He cannot bear to hear his property or his family dog criticized by anyone.

Q9. What happened to Lomov during the intense argument about the dogs?

Ans: Lomov became overwhelmed by stress and palpitations, lost consciousness, and fainted, making Chubukov and Natalya fear that he was dead.

Q10. How did the marriage proposal finally happen at the end of the play?

Ans: As soon as Lomov regained consciousness, Chubukov quickly put Natalya's hand in his, shouted at them to get married immediately, and demanded they kiss.

Q11. Why did Lomov think that he was at a critical age to get married?

Ans: Lomov believed that he was already thirty-five years old, which he considered a critical age, and needed to lead a quiet, regular married life.

Q12. How does the play mock the upper-class Russian society of that era?

Ans: It mocks them by showing how rich landowners prioritized property and vanity over love, respect, and genuine human relationships.

Q13. What is a "One-Act Play"?

Ans: A one-act play is a short drama that unfolds entirely within a single act and takes place in one continuous setting or room.

Q14. Why did Lomov wear a formal evening dress during his visit?

Ans: He wore a formal evening dress with gloves because he was making an official visit to make a formal, respectable marriage proposal.

Q15. What is the central message or theme of Anton Chekhov's play?

Ans: The central theme is that materialistic greed, ego, and petty arguments can easily blind people and make them look completely foolish.

🎯 50 OBJECTIVE QUESTIONS (QUESTION & OPTIONS IN SINGLE LINE)

1. 'A Marriage Proposal' is written by the legendary Russian writer: (A) Bertrand Russell (B) Anton Chekhov (C) Shiga Naoya (D) H.E. Bates

2. Anton Chekhov was by profession a: (A) Lawyer (B) Doctor / Physician (C) Scientist (D) Engineer

3. Anton Chekhov belongs to which country?: (A) England (B) America (C) Russia (D) France

CLASS - 12th

SUBJECT - ENGLISH

PROSE + POETRY + STORY OF ENGLISH

4. 'A Marriage Proposal' is structurally a: (A) Short story (B) One-act comedy play (C) Long essay (D) Poem
5. The central character who comes to propose is named: (A) Chubukov (B) Lomov (C) Sanders (D) Ivan
6. Lomov went to the house of his neighbor named: (A) Stepan Chubukov (B) Whitmore (C) Chekhov (D) Benjy
7. Natalya was the daughter of: (A) Lomov (B) Chubukov (C) Sanders (D) Ratiram
8. Natalya was _____ years old.: (A) twenty (B) twenty-five (C) thirty (D) thirty-five
9. Lomov was a landowner who was _____ years old.: (A) twenty-five (B) thirty (C) thirty-five (D) forty
10. Lomov arrived at Chubukov's house wearing a formal: (A) night suit (B) uniform (C) evening dress with gloves (D) dhoti kurta
11. Chubukov initially suspected that Lomov had come to: (A) fight (B) borrow money (C) buy a car (D) sell land
12. Lomov came to Chubukov's house to propose to: (A) his sister (B) his daughter Natalya (C) his aunt (D) his servant
13. When Chubukov heard about the proposal, he felt completely: (A) angry (B) sad (C) overjoyed and excited (D) frightened
14. Lomov suffers from a nervous ailment called severe: (A) fever (B) palpitations (C) blindness (D) headache
15. The first dispute between Lomov and Natalya began over: (A) hunting dogs (B) Oxen Meadows (land) (C) money (D) gold jewelry
16. Oxen Meadows was a disputed land touched by Chubukov's: (A) river (B) birchwoods (C) factory (D) hill
17. Lomov claimed that his _____ gave the meadows to Chubukov's peasants.: (A) father (B) aunt's grandmother (C) brother (D) lawyer
18. Natalya claimed that their family had owned Oxen Meadows for nearly: (A) 50 years (B) 100 years (C) 300 years (D) 500 years
19. During the argument, Lomov threatens to take the matter to the: (A) police station (B) court of law (C) village panchayat (D) newspaper
20. Chubukov called Lomov's grandfather a habitual: (A) gambler (B) drunkard (C) thief (D) hunter
21. Chubukov insultingly called Lomov a petty: (A) criminal (B) land-grabber (C) lawyer (D) politician
22. After shouting and arguing bitterly, Lomov left the house in a state of: (A) laughter (B) illness / panic (C) wealth (D) victory
23. Who informed Natalya that Lomov had actually come to propose to her?: (A) The servant (B) Her father Chubukov (C) Lomov himself (D) A doctor
24. When Natalya learned about the proposal, she started: (A) laughing (B) crying and yelling to bring

CLASS - 12th SUBJECT - ENGLISH PROSE + POETRY + STORY OF ENGLISH

him back (C) dancing (D) singing

25. Chubukov complained that being the father of a grown-up daughter is a heavy: (A) joy (B) prize (C) burden (D) joke

26. When Lomov returned, the second argument started over their: (A) clothes (B) hunting dogs (C) houses (D) food

27. The name of Lomov's dog was: (A) Squeezer (B) Guess (C) Tommy (D) Tiger

28. The name of Natalya's dog was: (A) Guess (B) Squeezer (C) Jack (D) Bruno

29. Lomov bought his dog 'Guess' from Mironov for _____ roubles.: (A) 50 (B) 85 (C) 125 (D) 150

30. Chubukov stated that Natalya's dog 'Squeezer' was worth at least: (A) 25 roubles (B) 85 roubles (C) 100 roubles (D) 500 roubles

31. Lomov claimed that Natalya's dog was overshot, meaning it was a bad: (A) sleeper (B) hunter (C) runner (D) barker

32. Due to excessive anger and shouting, Lomov suddenly fell down into an armchair and: (A) fainted / lost consciousness (B) started singing (C) slept comfortably (D) died instantly

33. Seeing Lomov unconscious, Natalya and Chubukov thought he was: (A) acting (B) dead (C) sleeping (D) laughing

34. Chubukov desperately shouted for water and a: (A) lawyer (B) doctor (C) priest (D) book

35. When Lomov opened his eyes, Chubukov quickly shouted: "Get married and go to the _____!": (A) market (B) devil (C) church (D) court

36. Chubukov told Lomov that Natalya was completely: (A) unwilling (B) willing and in love (C) sick (D) dead

37. The couple finally accepted each other and sealed it with a: (A) contract (B) kiss (C) fight (D) ring

38. Even after accepting the marriage proposal, Natalya and Lomov continued to argue about their: (A) land (B) dogs (C) wedding dress (D) money

39. Chubukov ended the play by calling for a bottle of: (A) milk (B) champagne / wine (C) water (D) juice

40. 'A Marriage Proposal' satirizes the lifestyle of rich Russian: (A) peasants (B) landowners / gentry (C) soldiers (D) doctors

41. Lomov can be described as a highly anxious and _____ man.: (A) brave (B) hypochondriac / nervous (C) poor (D) lazy

42. Natalya's character shows that she is short-tempered and: (A) highly romantic (B) argumentative and stubborn (C) peaceful (D) uneducated

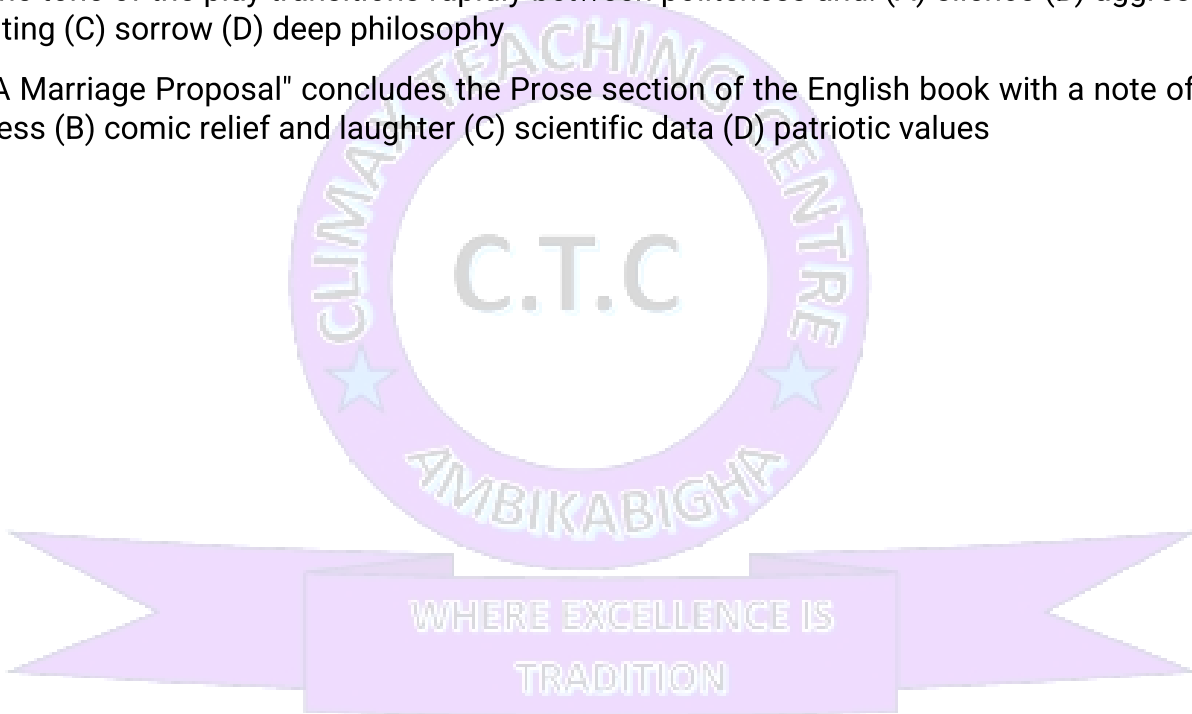

43. Roubles is the official currency of: (A) England (B) America (C) Russia (D) China

44. The setting of the entire play is the drawing room of: (A) Lomov's house (B) Chubukov's house (C) a court (D) a hotel

CLASS - 12th SUBJECT - ENGLISH PROSE + POETRY + STORY OF ENGLISH

45. Chubukov addresses Lomov with fake affectionate words like "my angel" and: (A) "my enemy" (B) "my precious" / "my boy" (C) "my master" (D) "sir"
46. Anton Chekhov's works are globally famous for their dry: (A) tragedy (B) humor and irony (C) horror (D) romanticism
47. Lomov's aunt's name mentioned in the play is: (A) Florence (B) Nastasya (C) Natalya (D) Mary
48. The play highlights that marriages in high society were often economic: (A) failures (B) partnerships / arrangements (C) religious events (D) crimes
49. The tone of the play transitions rapidly between politeness and: (A) silence (B) aggressive shouting / fighting (C) sorrow (D) deep philosophy
50. "A Marriage Proposal" concludes the Prose section of the English book with a note of: (A) ultimate sadness (B) comic relief and laughter (C) scientific data (D) patriotic values

SUJIT KUMAR

