CHAPTER 4: I HAVE A DREAM (BY MARTIN LUTHER KING JR.)

=====

■ CHAPTER SUMMARY (IN 50 WORDS)

"I Have a Dream" is a historic speech delivered by Martin Luther King Jr. in 1963. He strongly demands freedom and equality for Negroes (African-Americans) in America. King envisions a future where racial discrimination ends, justice prevails, and people are judged by character rather than skin color.

 15 IMPORTANT SHORT SUBJECTIVE QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q1. On what occasion and when did Martin Luther King Jr. deliver this speech?

Ans: Martin Luther King Jr. delivered this speech on August 28, 1963, on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington D.C. during the March on Washington.

Ans: He wants to see Alabama transformed into a place where little black boys and black girls can join hands with little white boys and white girls as brothers and sisters.

Q10. Who was Martin Luther King Jr. deeply influenced by in his method of struggle?

Ans: Martin Luther King Jr. was deeply influenced by Mahatma Gandhi and his philosophy of non-violence (Satyagraha).

Q11. What is the meaning of "Racial Discrimination"?

Ans: Racial discrimination means treating people unfairly or poorly based entirely on their race, origin, or the color of their skin.

Q12. What does the phrase "Let freedom ring" mean in the speech?

Ans: It means that true freedom and democracy should echo and spread across every mountain, hill, city, and state of America for every citizen.

Q13. Why can the Negroes never be satisfied according to the speech?

Ans: They can never be satisfied as long as they face police brutality, are denied lodging in hotels, and are stripped of their self-respect and right to vote.

Q14. How should the struggle for rights be carried forward?

Ans: The struggle must be carried forward with creative protest, continuous unity, spiritual strength, and without hatred for white people.

Q15. What will happen if America ignores the demands of the Negro population?

Ans: If America ignores their demands, it will prove fatal for the nation, as the storms of revolt will continue to shake the foundations of the country.
